Dear Reader,

Once again I thank and congratulate Mrs. Judd and her volunteer students for recording more pages of the history of Warwick Academy.

It is becoming very apparent that 'old' families are returning to the fold. It may well be that, during the school's period of being a public school, some went elsewhere for a while. We can now tell from the names of the youngsters that there are increasing number of the children of alumni in the school.

There are, incidentally, almost 30 youngsters of staff of the school within our ranks – which is also a good sign of the confidence placed in us. With new families being welcomed into the fold also, the background support of the school is now growing and consolidating – as may be witnessed in the very healthy activities of the WAA - The Warwick Academy Association.

Last year I reflected on a period of change. This has continued. We now have a handsome addition to our school buildings. This has provided us with five new classrooms, a staffroom, which will also serve as a staff training centre and a base for social events, an additional first class computer room facility and much needed changing rooms and bathrooms. Additionally we have developed the curriculum by adding tuition in information technology and communications for all – yes from Primary 1 to Senior 5, Business Education for all, a classical Literacy course and Spanish, for the first time.

These are exciting times for the school and it will continue to be so. We have ambitious plans and we will need your help. Meanwhile I am able to report that the end product continues to reach the highest levels. Our examination results were outstanding this summer and, just as importantly, the youngsters who left us were first class, level-headed, mature young people. This is the dual target we intend to keep delivering.

I hope you enjoy our Yearbook.

Robert Lennox
Headmaster

PATTON HOUSE

Patton house had a great year!

We continued to finish first or second in most sports events. The strong emphasis was on participation, and it helped us win overall.

In the merit race we seemed always to be second, but on the final count of gold certificates we came out a strong winner. We continued our community project, the Lorraine Rest Home.

Many of us enjoyed our visits there and each time we left we had a great feeling of achievement.

Our biggest event was the Christmas stockings for the residents.

Each received a personalized stocking filled with goodies supplied by parents and students of Patton house.

Each persons face told a story of joy, it was great.

The birthday cakes for residents and the singing also brought happiness for the residents. Thanks for all that helped.

It was a great year.

Well done PATTON!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Ernie Owen Memorial Award.

Ernie Owen attended Warwick Academy and graduated in the class of 1960. He then joined the Public Works Department and was chosen as the recipient of a scholarship to become qualified in England. On his return to Bermuda he rejoined the civil service, and rose to the positions of Deputy Director of Public Works, and later the post of Permanent Secretary for the Ministry of Labour and Home Affairs. He was a prominent member of the Bermuda Bridge Club, and after his tragic death in a road traffic accident, the Bridge Club set up a Scholarship Fund in his name. Aisha James is the second recipient of the annual Ernie Owen Memorial Award. Mr. Owen is survived by his wife Susan and three sons; Dennie, Andrew, and Tyler, all of whom attended Warwick Academy.

Alice Jones Centenary Award.

Alice Jones was born and bred in North America and came to Bermuda after marrying a Bermudian. She taught mathematics at Warwick Academy for over twenty years before retiring. Not long after that, she came out of retirement to fill the need for a Warwick Academy religion teacher. On the occasion of her 100th birthday a party was organised by her former pupils and the money collected was used to start a Scholarship Fund. The second recipient of the annual Alice Jones Centenary Award is Nathan Samuels. Mrs. Alice Jones recently celebrated her 103rd birthday.

Drama Report
Much Ado About Nothing

On November 13 and 14, 1997 fifth year students staged a production of Much Ado About Nothing, which some of them were studying for IGCSE. The wheels were set in motion the previous summer, when Tammy Harney convinced Mrs. Ingham that such a project could be undertaken and went about casting the production - and then promptly left to go abroad to study!

Although the cast had been decided in June, over the summer holidays some people had had second thoughts and there was some difficulty - as usual - in getting enough boys to take part. Thus it was that Mrs. Ingham reinterpreted the play, and had a female watch and female minister who were thus able to sort out the messes created by the men - much as in real life! Mr. Hassen cheerfully agreed to play Verges, the sidekick of Dogberry, played by Tareek Somner. The principles were very keen and rehearsed faithfully after school several afternoons a week, and thus produced very polished performances on the night. Jeremy Drover made an excellent Benedick and was well supported by Adam Birch as Claudio and Gregory Bell as Don Pedro. He met his match in Beatrice, played by Claudia Cabral, who rather overshadowed her cousin, Hero, played by Victoria Ward. The villains of the piece, Don John, Borachio and Conrade, played by Leon Smith, David Roache and Alvin Forde respectively, got their just desserts. They were ably supported by a cast of minor characters. The consensus among the actors was summed up by Victoria Ward who stated, "It was hard work, but on the real night it all paid off. I really enjoyed taking part."

The rather unusual venue - the Old Quadrangle - posed some technical difficulties, especially when it threatened to rain, but none a competent crew could not overcome. The lighting Mr. Hall cheerfully declared was "a nightmare" while Mr. Rodriguez equally cheerfully considered "no problem" - problem or not, the effect of the uplighting on the palm trees and balcony was magical. Gregory Doyle undertook the sound by himself, and we are very grateful to Spanish Town Sound for the loan of their equipment. All activity backstage was competently coordinated by two stage managers - Derek Lindo and Katrina Smith - who were responsible for ensuring that actors and props were on stage when they needed to be. Mrs. Sheppard had the unenviable, but essential, task of keeping excited cast members under control and helped with make up too.

The actual production in the open air and in modern costume was very effective. The young men looked very smart in their uniforms borrowed from the Bermuda Regiment and the watch were impressive in their Bermuda Police uniforms. The musical interludes performed by Miss Smith, Ki-Juan Minors and Jessica Figuerido enhanced the magical atmosphere. Front of house responsibilities were effectively carried out by Mr. Hart and Mr. Senior and their second year helpers.

A lot of hard work went into this production, and its success was dependent on a large number of staff and students working together as an effective team. Mrs. Ingham can echo the thoughts of Derek Lindo: "The play caused me a lot of stress and pressure, but it was fun. I must admit."
